

Fr. Volney DeRosia

Fr. Volney (Von) DeRosia was raised in Concord, NH. After High School, he attended UNH as a Music Major. During that time, his involvement with the Catholic Student Organization led him to involvement in Birthright and his first trip to the March for Life in Washington, DC.

After college, Fr. Von attended University of St. Mary of the Lake — Mundelein Seminary, and was ordained a priest for the Diocese of Manchester in 2003. Since then, every January, he has led groups from his parishes to the March for Life. He is currently pastor of St. Patrick Parish in Pelham, Assistant Vocation Director for the Diocese of Manchester, and on the Board for the International Fraternity of Priests.
