

Kevin Cronin

Kevin has lived in Londonderry for many years. Over the course of his career, Kevin has gained senior financial and operational management experience in both large public companies as well as private early stage organizations.

He has maintained leadership positions in a variety of key finance areas such as accounting, planning, contracts, facilities, public and private financing, SEC reporting, Sarbanes – Oxley compliance, and information technology.

Kevin holds a bachelors degree in business administration from Hartwick College in Oneonta, New York and an M.B.A from Northeastern University in Boston, Massachusetts. He is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and is a Certified Public Accountant. He currently serves on St. Mark the Evangelist Parish Finance Council.

Kevin is a husband and father of five children. He volunteers as a soccer coach, and on weekends can usually be found on the Londonderry fields with his wife enjoying his youngest son playing soccer and baseball.