

Laura Gandia

Laura J. Gandia holds Bachelor of Science degrees in political science and psychology with a minor in public administration from Providence College. She obtained her juris doctorate degree from Massachusetts School of Law with a concentration in civil litigation. She is a practicing attorney admitted to practice both New Hampshire and Massachusetts and was involved in setting up numerous not for profit corporations.

As a former state representative, she continues to be involved in local and town government. She sits on various boards and committees and holds numerous affiliations. As an engaged member of St. Francis of Assisi Church, she serves as an extraordinary minister and interim chair of the Parish Finance Council. She is an active volunteer in her community and enjoys spending time with her husband of over 20 years and her two sons.